12. The Lessee or an allottee, as the case may be, shall not without sanction or permission in writing of the proper municipal or other authority erect any building or make any alteration or addition to such building on the demised plot.

13. The Lessee or an allottee, as the case may be, shall not without the written consent of the Lessor carry on, or permit to be carried on, on any plot or in any building thereon any trade or business whatsoever or use the same or permit the same to be used for any purpose other than that of private dwelling or do or suffer to be done therein any act or thing whatsoever which in the opinion of the Lessor may be a nuisance, annoyance of disturbance to the Lessor, the Lessee, other allottees and persons living in the neighbourhood.

PROVIDED that, if the Lessee or an allottee, as the case may be, is desirous of using the plot or the building thereon for a purpose other than that of private dwelling, the Lessor may allow such change of user on such terms and conditions, including payment of additional premium and additional rent, as the Lessor may in his absolute discretion determine.

14. The Lessee or allottees, as the case may be, shall at all reasonable times grant access to the plot and the buildings constructed thereon to the Authority for being satisfied that the covenants and conditions herein contained have been and are being complied with.

15. The Lessee and save as provided in Clause VII the allottee shall on the determination of this Lease peaceably yield up the plot and the buildings thereon unto the Lessor.

16. The Lessee shall perform all the functions and duties of a registered agency as are envisaged by the Delhi Development Authority (Management & Disposal of Housing Estates) Regulations, 1968. The lessee shall, in so far as application of the said Regulations to the dwelling units being built by the Lessee is concerned, the Lessee will be deemed to be a registered agency.

III. If the sum or sums payable towards the premium or the yearly rent hereby reserved or any part thereof shall at any time be in arrear and unpaid for one calendar month next after any of the days whereon the same shall have become due, whether the same shall have been demanded or not, or if it is discovered that this lease or any conveyance deed has been obtained by suppression of any fact or by any mis-statement, misrepresentation or fraud or if there shall have been in the opinion of the Lessor, whose decision shall be final, any breach by the Lessee or by any person claiming through or under it of any of the covenants or conditions herein contained and on its part to be observed or performed, then and in any such case, it shall be lawful for the Lessor notwithstanding the waiver of any previous cause or right of re-entry upon the plot hereby demised and the building thereon to re-enter upon and take possession of plot or any of the subleased plots and the buildings and fixtures thereon in respect of which any sum or rent has been in arrear, or such suppression, mis-statement, misrepresentation or fraud or breach has been committed and thereupon this demise and everything herein contained shall cease and determine in respect of the plot so re-entered upon the Lessee and the allottee(s) shall not be entitled to any compensation whatsoever, nor to the return of any premium paid.

PROVIDED that, notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the Lessor may without prejudice to his right of re-entry as aforesaid, and in his absolute discretion, waive or condone breaches, temporarily or otherwise, on receipt of such amount and on such terms and conditions as may be determined by him and may also accept the payment of the said sum or sums or the rent which shall be in arrear as aforesaid together with interest at the rate of six per cent per annum.

IV. No forfeiture or re-entry shall be effected until the Lessor has served on the Lessee and the allottee concerned a notice in writing.

(a) Specifying the particular breach complained of, and

- b) If the breach is capable of remedy, requiring the Lessee and the allottee concerned to remedy the breach.

and the Lessee and the allottee concerned fail within such reasonable time as may be mentioned in the notice to remedy the breach if it is capable of remedy; and in the event of forfeiture or re-entry the Lessor may in his discretion relieve again forfeiture on such terms and conditions as he thinks proper.

Nothing in this clause shall apply to forfeiture or re-entry.

- a) for breach of covenants and conditions relating to sub-division or amalgamation, erection and completion of buildings, within the time provided and transfer of the plot as mentioned in Clause II, or

- b) in case this Lease or any conveyance deed has been obtained by suppression of any fact, mis-statement, mis-representation or fraud.

V. The rent hereby reserved shall be enhanced from the first day of January two thousand and twenty four and thereafter at the end of each successive period of thirty years provided that the increase in the rent fixed at each enhancement shall not at each such time exceed one-half of the increase in the letting value of the site without buildings at the date on which the enhancement is due and such letting value shall be assessed by the Collector or Additional Collector of Delhi or such other officer as may be appointed by the Lessor.

PROVIDED ALWAYS that any such assessment of the letting value for the purpose of this provision shall be subject to the same right on the part of the Lessee of appeal from the orders of the said Collector or Additional Collector and within such time as if the same were an assessment by a Revenue Officer under the Punjab Land Revenue Act, 1887 (Act XVII of 1887), or any amending Act for the time being in force proceedings for or in relation to any such appeal shall be in all respects governed by the provisions of the said Act in the same manner if the same had been taken thereunder.

VI. The Lessor shall, in addition to all his other rights, have the right in the event of failure of the Lessee to observe and perform any of the covenants and conditions herein contained, to require and enforce the performance and compliance therewith from the allottee so far as these relate to the plot leased to him, and to realise directly from the allottee the yearly rent and all other sums due and payable by him under the bye-laws of the Society or the terms and conditions of allotment to the Lessee.

VII. In the event of the dissolution of the Lessee, for whatever cause, this Lease shall stand determined and the Lessor shall be deemed to be the successor-in-interest of the Lessee and all rights and obligations of the Lessee thereunder shall devolve upon the Lessor, and the allottee shall observe and perform his obligations under conveyance deed to the Lessor.

VIII. In the event of any question, dispute or difference, arising under these presents, or in connection therewith (except as to any matters the decision of which is specially provided by these presents), the same shall be referred to the sole arbitration of the Authority or any other person appointed by it. It will be no objection that the arbitrator is a servant of the Authority, and that he has to deal with the matters to which the Lease relates, or that in the course of his duties as a servant of the Authority he has expressed views on all or any of the matters in dispute or difference. The award of the arbitrator shall be final and binding on the parties.

The arbitrator may, with the consent of the parties, enlarge the time, from time to time, for making and publishing the award.

Subject as aforesaid, the Arbitration Act, 1940, and the Rules thereunder and any modifications thereof for the time being in force shall be deemed to apply to the arbitration proceedings under this Clause.
